Welcome

FROM THE CEO & EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

To our patrons, supporters, sponsors, friends, and neighbors:

Welcome to The Paramount Theater. Now in our 94th year, this historic and beloved theater has been a gathering place for generations—a home for stories, music, laughter, and connection. As we look ahead to the summer season, it's remarkable to see how this place continues to evolve while staying true to its roots as a cultural cornerstone for Charlottesville and beyond.

We kick off the season with a dose of unscripted fun as Colin and Brad return to the stage with their signature improv show, Asking for Trouble. We'll also wrap up our Met Live in HD season with Il Barbiere di Siviglia, a classic opera that continues to captivate audiences. And soon after, we welcome our celebrated community partner, Charlottesville Opera, back to our stage with Carmen and The Pirates of Penzance—two productions that promise powerful performances and summer magic for all ages.

As always, our summer film lineup brings something for everyone—from blockbusters and comedy classics to musicals and iconic favorites. Whether it's Top Gun, Mary Poppins, La La Land, or Monty Python and the Holy Grail, we love curating titles that spark joy and nostalgia (and yes, we have a lot of fun picking them out!).

You'll also find opportunities this summer to explore the Theater's rich history through our free historical tours. As we continue to celebrate the 20th anniversary of our reopening as a nonprofit, it's the perfect time to reflect on where we've been and what's ahead.

Your presence here—whether it's your first visit or your hundredth—helps ensure that The Paramount remains a vibrant, welcoming space for generations to come. Every ticket purchased, every membership renewed, and every moment spent in these seats supports our ability to bring the arts to life for our entire community. We don't take that for granted. Your patronage not only honors our past—it actively builds our future. For that, we are deeply grateful.

On behalf of our dedicated staff, board of directors, and incredible volunteers—thank you for being here. Your support fuels our mission to educate, enchant, enrich, and enlighten through the performing arts. We're glad you've joined us, and I look forward to seeing you at the Theater.

Most Sincerely,

Julie A. Montross
CEO & Executive Director

JUSTIN WILLMAN

SATURDAY, AUGUST 16, 7:00PM

Justin Willman has quickly become one of the most influential magicians of his generation — without ever taking himself too seriously.

A master of blending magic with comedy, heart, and just the right amount of mischief, he first rose to national fame as the host of Cupcake Wars (yes, really) before creating and starring in the critically acclaimed Netflix series Magic for Humans. Over multiple seasons, Willman redefined magic for the streaming era: sharp, fast, funny, and deeply human.

Now, he's set to break new ground again with Magic Lover on Netflix — the platform's first-ever stand-up comedy special from a magician. In it, Willman fuses mind-blowing illusions with storytelling, humor, and heart, tackling everything from fatherhood to the strange serendipities of life, all while making audiences laugh, cry, and gasp — often at the same time.

He also created and starred in Magic Prank Show, Netflix's first hidden-camera magic prank series. He's a regular on The Tonight Show, The Today Show, and the Kelly Clarkson Show, and sold out theaters across the country with his Illusionati tour. A Los Angeles native with Midwest roots, Willman's live shows are part spectacle, part therapy session, part stand-up set — a uniquely feel-good cocktail in a world that could use more of it.

When he's not onstage or onscreen, Willman's busy being a dad, tinkering with new ways to blend technology and magic, and proving that the best tricks aren't about deception — they're about connection. In an age where cynicism comes easy, Justin Willman is betting big on wonder.

GEORGE THOROGOOD AND THE DESTROYERS: THE BADDEST SHOW ON EARTH
SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, 8:00PM

In a five-decade career fueled by 8,000+ live shows, more than 15 million albums sold, and a global reputation as "the band that plays hot enough to melt the polar icecaps" (Rolling Stone) and "one of the 5 best acts left out of The Rock & Roll Hall of Fame" (WNUF Binghamton), where can "one of the most iconic bands in rock history" (Rapid City Journal) possibly go from here?

"That's all pretty good for the first 50 years," George Thorogood says with a laugh. "But we keep working harder, digging deeper, and playing stronger. Now it's time to go back out there and do some serious rockin'." For George Thorogood and The Destroyers, serious rockin' will always be what they do best. And for 2025, The Baddest Show On Earth Tour will bring the guitar-slinging, amp-blasting, roof-shaking rock party like never before.

George and longtime Destroyers Jeff Simon (drums), Bill Blough (bass), Jim Suhler (guitar), and Buddy Leach (saxophone) are now taking all the drum-bashing, basspounding, sax-wailing, monster guitar energy of the past five decades and pouring it into The Baddest Show On Earth Tour, with "the boogie-blues Sinatra" (Classic Rock History) as its relentless ringmaster. "If the circus makes everyone feel like a kid again, this tour will make you feel like a teenager," George says with a grin. "I consider us to be a musical high-wire act that works without a net, and we'll be bringing all the danger, thrills, and fun that our audiences can handle. Because that's what great rock & roll is all about."

ARTS EDUCATION

The MISSION of The Paramount Theater Arts Education Program is to foster appreciation, understanding, and love of the performing arts.

The generosity of our Arts Education Partners has made it possible for 230,103 students and teachers from all over Central Virginia to experience live performing arts in the restored historic Paramount Theater since 2004.

The Paramount Theater believes that performing arts are an essential part of every child's education. Thanks to the generosity of our Arts Education Partners, each season The Paramount serves thousands of students and teachers from throughout Central Virginia with exceptional, educational, and enriching live performing arts experiences that capture imaginations, broaden perspectives, and tap into new ways of learning. ALL student/teacher tickets are subsidized and students who qualify for free and reduced meals participate at no cost.
